Introducing Lisa Steenson

The Democratic Coordinated Campaign has assigned Lisa Steenson to help Democratic volunteers in Kingman, Bullhead City, and Lake Havasu City maximize efforts to get registered Democrats to cast ballots in both Primary (Aug. 24) and General (Nov 2) elections. Our tools are home visits to our neighbors and phone calls.

After the Primary, the individual candidate campaigns are expected to concentrate on Independent voters.

Lisa Steenson is already on the job! Through her, the Coordinated Campaign and the State Party is furnishing some pre-paid cell phones to all three Mohave County Campaign offices, and lists of registered Democrats who only sporadically cast a vote. It is important to contact those folks to encourage them to vote, especially by explaining the Vote-at-Home strategy. Please contact your local campaign office to volunteer. Lisa's phone is 602-349-8467.

Be Wiser - Vote Weisser

Beth Weisser is running for LD 3 State Senate in 2010. Currently she is a teacher in Kingman, Arizona. She is an active member of the Kingman High School Site Council, Arizona Education Association and Vice-President of the Kingman Education Association. Beth is also an Arizona licensed real estate agent.

In 1984 Beth moved to Phoenix, Arizona with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. She worked in real estate sales, property management, and accounting. With her ex-husband she also owned and managed a sprinkler and landscape business until 1992 when they moved to Sanders, AZ. Beth was an elected member of the Puerco Valley Volunteer Fire Department Governing Board in Sanders, AZ, served as an appointed member of the Apache County Planning and Zoning Board of Adjustments and Appeals, the Sanders liaison for Apache County's Growing Smarter Communities and an active member of the Valley High School Site Council.

As your State Senator, Beth Weisser will help get Arizona on the right track with a balanced approach to solving Arizona's budget crisis and protecting middle-class families and kids.

Netroots Nation Conference

by Kim Lawrence

I began my trip to the Netroots Nation 2010 conference late as usual. Had planned to be there by 6pm but didn't leave the house until 5pm. It was very hot and my little Ford Exploder has had overheating issues. We weren't 5 miles out of Laughlin going through the pass before we were sitting on the side of the highway letting the engine cool enough to refill with coolant. But being a graduate of "Murphy's Law University" I took the opportunity to soak up some much needed sun into my wintery white skin.

We were back on the road in no time and with the uphill portion out of the way, we managed to make it to Vegas in good time, only to overheat on Tropicana and Eastern LOL, then on the Strip but somehow managed to limp into the Rio parking structure alive and unspoiled. (Hurray!!!)

Awaiting my arrival, although very late, was my good Twitter friend Charlie aka @42bkdodgr. I was pleasantly surprised that he waited so long to meet me, and so very pleased to have had the opportunity to chat with him even if it was for just a short while. I also got to meet my #NN10 roommate, Carmen Cornejo. I hope I have made a friend for life. What an awesome gal she is, and so dedicated to social justice. I found that we had both been a part of the National Day of Action Against SB1070 in Phoenix.

I was able to put several twitter names to faces including Kevin Bondelli of Tucson who works for Rodney Glassman. Some new friends include musician and author Alicia Morgan, Kitsap River of the Pacific NW, and Cori Redstone of Utah.

Celebrities you ask? Oh there were lots of celebrities. I met two, Comedian/Activist Elon James White, and Laurence O'Donnell of MSNBC fame. I stood next to Ed Schultz and became instantly mute and had a picture taken pointing to Rep Alan Grayson (as you can clearly see that while I may have found my voice on the internet, I still have yet to find my 'cojones' intact in real life 🍌).

Rep. Alan Grayson

Yes NN10 was so very much fun, but there was also very serious work to be done and the panels were outstanding and informative. I walked away with a renewed sense of commitment to electing strong progressives and fighting the lies and bigotry that has become the Republican Party. We have the people and we have the tools. We need to put aside our own differences and fight together or we lose, and the people lose. I'm terrified at the thought of what would happen if the Right were to regain power. Let's be strong and make our representatives strong.
